

Judge Daniel L. Dysart

Judicial Service:

Judge Daniel L. Dysart began his career as a Fourth Circuit Court of Appeal judge where he has served from January 1, 2011 to present.

Education:

Holy Cross High School

University of Louisiana – Lafayette, 1977

Loyola University New Orleans College of Law, 1980

Member of Law Review

Professional, Civic and Business Affiliations:

American Bar Association

American Judges Association

Vice-President, St. Thomas Moore Lawyers Association

Louisiana Judges Association

Past President of the Louisiana Fourth and Fifth Circuit Judges Association

Two term Councilman at Large – East for St. Bernard Parish Council

First chairman of the St. Bernard Parish Council

First President of the Fourth Circuit Judges Association

Past President of the St. Bernard Bar Association

President, Corinne Estates Civic Association